POLICY STATEMENT

It is believed that Human Resources is our most important asset and guarantee for an effective organization. To this end we strive in our provisioning efforts to attract the most suitable candidates for appointment in accordance with the functional needs of Council.

We are committed to create and maintain a diverse workforce in pursuance of Employment Equity and establishing a sound human resources management function.

POLICY OBJECTIVES

The objective of the Recruitment, Selection and Induction Policy for Thembelihle Local Municipality is to provide for a comprehensive policy with accommodates the needs for staff provisioning in the most efficient, professional and cost-effective way as to the effect that:

- No unfair discrimination practices exist in the provisioning discipline of Council;
- Such policy contributes and enhances a diverse culture and environment whereby all staff can contribute to the goals of Council and where such staff make-up is representative of the demographics environment of the area it serves.
- Introduction of fair and objective principles and procedures for that staffing of the employer.
- Provision of guidelines for the appointment of candidates to the employer.
- Establishing principles and procedures ensuring that the Employer complies with legislative principles in respect of employment equity and affirmative action.
- Setting out the procedural steps for the advertisement of a vacant post, the selection of applicants for interviews, the conducting of interviews and the appointment of candidates to the permanent staff of the employer.

INTENT

To ensure personnel provisioning that accommodates a comprehensive process which is a result of an agreement reached between all stakeholders concerned the Policy should be inclusive of the following processes:

- Recruitment procedure
- Selection procedure
- Advertisement procedure
- Interviewing procedure
- Qualification and experience requirements
- Induction of new employees

FOUNDATIONAL PRINCIPLES

- The staffing policy and its implementation will be fundamentally aimed at matching the human resources to the strategic and operational needs of the Employer and ensuring the full utilization and continued development of these employees.
- Each appointment must be rationally and objectively justifiable by references to the strategic and operational needs of the Employer
- The responsibility for the Employer is to determine the strategic and operational needs of the Employer and the relevant reporting and management structures of the organization.
- All aspects will be non-discriminatory and will afford applicants equal opportunity to complete for vacant positions. Except as provided in this policy with reference to affirmative action and employment equity.
- With reference to the Constitution of South Africa, act 108 of 1996 as amended and the provisions of Chapter II of the Employment Equity Act, 55 of 1998, under no circumstances should any person be refused employment on any arbitrary or discriminatory basis, including but not limited to race, gender, sex, pregnancy. Marital status, family responsibility, ethnic or social origin, colour, sexual orientation, age, disability, religion, HIV status, conscience, belief and/or opinion.
- Thembelihle Local Municipality is an employment equity employer and as such, preference will be given to suitably qualified candidates who are members of designated groups as defined in section 1 of the Employment Equity Act of 1998 as consisting of black people, women and people with disabilities.

EMPLOYMENT EQUITY AND AFFIRMATIVE ACTION

Elimination of unfair discrimination:

- Thembelihle Local Municipality shall take steps to promote equal opportunity in the workplace by eliminating unfair discrimination in any employment policy or practice.
- It is affirmed that it will not constitute unfair discrimination to take affirmative action measures consistent with the purposes of the Employment Equity Act of 1998 as set out in this policy or to distinguish, exclude or prefer any person on the basis of an essential requirement of any job.
- Harassment of an employee, including sexual harassment of any form, constitutes unfair discrimination and such harassment will attract disciplinary action against any employee found to have committed harassment.

Applications of the Employment Equity Act of 1998:

As a defined “designated employer” in terms of section 1 of the Employment Equity Act of 1998, and as such the provisions of Chapter 3 of the Employment Equity Act are directly applicable to the Employer.

Affirmative action:

- As a designated employer Thembelihle Local Municipality must, in order to achieve employment equity, implement affirmative action measures for people from designated groups as defined in section 1 of the Employment Equity Act of 1998. “Designated groups” means black people with disabilities and “black people” is defined in the Employment Equity Act as a generic term meaning Africans, Coloureds and Indians.
- Affirmative action measures are measures designed to ensure that suitably qualified people from designated groups have equal employment opportunities and are equitably represented in all occupational categories and levels in the workforce of the employer.
- Affirmative action measures include, but are not limited to the following:
 - a) Measures to identify and eliminate employment barriers, including unfair discrimination, which adversely affect people from designated groups; b) Measures designed to further diversity in the workplace based on equal dignity and respect of all people;
 - c) Making reasonable accommodation for people from designated groups in order to ensure that they enjoy equal opportunities and are equitably represented in the workforce of the Employer;
 - d) Measures to ensure the equitable representation of suitably qualified people from designated groups all occupational levels in the workforce of the Employer;
 - e) Measures to retain and develop people from designated groups and to implement appropriate training measure, including measures in terms of the Skills Development Act of 1999.
- No provision in this policy should be construed as requiring the Employer to take any decision concerning an employment policy or practice that would establish an absolute barrier to the prospective or continued employment or advancement of people who are not from designated groups. This includes, but is not limited to, any decision relating to the termination of employment of any employee of the Employer for reasons not relating to the conduct or capacity of the employee or the operational requirements of the employer in terms of the provisions of Chapter VIII of the Labour relation Act of 1995, as amended.

Other steps:

- As employer, Thembelihle Local Municipality must take reasonable steps to consult and reach agreement on matters listed in section 17 of the Employment Equity Act with its employees or representatives nominated by the employees, subject to the provision of section 16 of the Employment Equity Act of 1998.
- Thembelihle Local Municipality must prepare and implement an employment equity plan, which will achieve reasonable progress towards employment equity in the Employer's workforce and such plan shall contain, at the very least, the information listed in section 20(2) of the Employment Equity Act of 1998.

- Thembelihle Local Municipality shall comply with the provisions of section 21(reporting to the Department of labour), section 23(preparation of successive employment equity plans) and all other provisions of the Employment Equity Act of 1998.

Accountability:

The responsibility for taking affirmative action measures and assuring compliance with the provisions of the Employment Equity act of 1998 is upon the Municipal Manager.

- c) Agreement should be reached between all stakeholders if and what testing to be conducted PRIOR to applicants being interviewed, e.g. testing for driver's positions.

Nepotism

A definition of nepotism is "undue favouritism". One can also define nepotism as the preferred option in candidate selection during the recruitment process, because the candidate is a relative or personal friend of the person making such an appointment.

Principles to be adhered to

- Family, friends and relatives may still apply for positions, but that the representatives on the selection panel should declare their interest and excuse themselves when family, friends and relatives are considered for appointment.
- A further guidance is that Council should try to avoid placing in the same Department.

- That the status quo remains regarding family and members who are presently employed by Council
- That the spirit of the Code of Good conduct be adhered to.
- Family members must be indicated on the application form and failure to do so lead to disciplinary measurements being taken.

Reference checking

- Only reference as provided by the applicant will be contacted. Under the following circumstances the lack of a reference shall be used to disqualify an applicant:
 - Application has had no previous experience; and
 - The current employer is the only source of reference
- No reference checking will be conducted on an applicant before an interview is conducted, but pre-screening to validate information on the Curriculum Vitae may be conducted in essential requirement of the job.
- The reference shall be based on the essential requirements of the job and be conducted in a structured format by Human Resources and Line Management in consultation with Human Resources.
- All rating of candidates against the identified competencies, to be done on the basis of a standardized methodology and the selection panel to be trained in such methodology.

Vetting

- Shortlisted candidates will be subjected to a personnel vetting process as and when required by Thembelihle Local Municipality.
- Notice of personnel vetting will be included in the recruitment advertisement when required.
- All qualifications of the successful candidates will be verified before the final offer of employment is made.

Probation

- Council recognizes that new employees will need a period of time to become familiar with the organization and to progress toward competing in their position.
- The purpose of the probation period orientation guidance, on the job training and coaching to the new position. This period is also the final and critical phase of the selection process that will provide to evaluate the hiring decision. To do this effectively, the supervisor/manager will be required to regularly monitor, measure and review the new employee's level of performance during the probation period.

- During this time the new employee will be evaluating and adjusting to his/her new position and work environment to determine if expectation is being met and assessing his/her overall fit to the organization and its mission, fundamental principles and values.
- Council may appoint a permanent employee on probation for a fixed period not exceeding six months, subject to the following conditions:
 - If council of the opinion that such employee has successfully completed his/her probationary period, Council shall confirm such employee's appointment in writing.
 - If Council, on or before the date of completion of the probation period of such employee, is of the opinion that he/she is not fit for the post occupied by him, Council May
 - In writing and stating the reasons therefore, extend the probationary period of such employee once only for a fixed period not exceeding six months; or
 - Give such employee at least one working month's written notice that his/her services will be terminated on a specific date: Provided that a fair procedure has been followed.

Feedback to candidates

- Human Resources will on request, be provided feedback to unsuccessful candidates for career development purposes.
- All applicants for advertised posts will be informed in writing of the outcome of the selection process in regard to their application.
- The Human Resource Practitioner informs the successful candidates and makes a verbal employment offer (remuneration, benefits, commencement date).
- All person appointed to the organization accept the appointment by way of signing the employment contract prior to commencement of duties.
- The Human Resource Practitioner informs the unsuccessful short listed candidates within five working days of the appointment being authorized.
- Enquiries from unsuccessful candidates are dealt with by the Human Resources Practitioner in conjunction with line Management.
- In the case of selection process for level 1 to 4 candidates, the Municipal Manager or his/her nominee will inform the successful and unsuccessful candidates of the outcome of the process. Once the employment contract has been signed, human Resources will take over the management of the relevant Human Resources processes for appointment.

INDUCTION

- All newly appointed employees will participate in the Organisation's Induction Process.
- Existing employees may go through a process of re-induction.

TEMPORARY EMPLOYEES

- One should distinguish between temporary staff and casual employment. CASUAL EMPLOYMENT refers to an ad hoc request for additional staff is not indicated on the organogram or positions which are occupied for a specific period. The status quo is to remain for these appointments. This refers to the General Manager employing the most suitable applicants which is readily available in the shortest period of time. No target settings need to be accommodates for these appointments. Examples of appointments of this nature are Students and replacements for employees who are readily not available at work for a longer period.
- TEMPORARY EMPLOYMENT refers to the situation where an individual is appointed in a position reflected on the Organogram of the Council with the intention to fill the vacancy at some stage in the future. The purpose behind the under-mentioned procedure is to eliminate any unfair advantage that a temporary employee may have when the position is filled on a permanent basis.
- The use of temporary personnel should be discouraged if and where possible. Temporary personnel should only be used to alleviate seasonal or temporary additional workload that cannot be accomplished with normal staff structures.
- The following procedure for filling of temporary positions is set:
 - Step 1: A personnel requisition form is to be completed by the relevant department and sent to the senior Manager: Human Resource for finalization. As the appointment of temporary staff often advantage the incumbent when the position is filled on a permanent basis, the applicable occupational categories as per target setting in terms of the approved Employment Equity Plan should be adhered to.
 - Step 2: An internal advertisement is to be placed inviting applicants through Council employees to apply for temporary appointments. If the appointment is of an urgent nature, the Municipal Manager may authorize the use of an employment agency, who should be requested to utilize employees from the local geographic area.

- Step 3: Interviews for the appointment of temporary personnel may be conducted by the Director or a nominee in the presence of Human Resources representative.
- Step 4: Human Resources must enter into a contractual agreement with each temporary appointed person or employment agency.

Note: As a guideline, temporary appointments should not exceed 3 months. However, departments must motivate the extension of the contract in writing to the General Manager: Corporate Services in the event that workload is still outstanding.

PAYMENT OF TRAVELLING AND ACCOMMODATION COSTS

10.1 Payment for travelling and accommodation costs will be dealt with in terms of the existing Subsistence and Travelling Policy of Council which may be amended from time to time. Applicant in a given set of facts, should be used to ensure compliance.

10.2 Only once the Applicant has complied with such conditions of approval, whether it be in terms of an agreed phasing or the entire development, should the further approvals or clearances as may be required be given by the municipal decision-makers concerned.

REVIEW

This policy document, as well as the reports and calculations methods, will need to be reviewed periodically to ensure that they are suitably adapted to meet any new statutory and integrated planning requirements and provide for the recovery of cost increases relating to the provision of engineering services.
